STATEMENT OF WORK

This solicitation is hereby amended as follows:

1. The evaluation rating scale is changed to read as follows:

All proposals will be evaluated in accordance with the evaluation criteria and definitions as stated below:

- a. Outstanding-The quality of the approach or plan exceeds most of the characteristics required in the solicitation. It uses new or proven methods and is presented in a superbly organized and logical manner to ensure the evaluator gains a thorough understanding of the proposed approach. The approach has an outstanding probability of meeting all requirements.
 - b. Highly Satisfactory- The quality of the approach or plan exceeds many of the requirements identified in the solicitation. It presents a method in sufficient detail to ensure the evaluator gains an understanding of the proposed approach. The proposed approach has the probability of producing highly satisfactory results.
 - c. Satisfactory- The quality of the approach or plan adequately meets the requirements in the RFP and is presented with at least minimal detail to ensure the evaluator gains an understanding of the proposed approach. The approach has a satisfactory probability of meeting requirements with limited technical risk.
 - d. Marginal- The approach or plan has been presented with some weak areas and major deficiencies.
